JUDGMENT

Raman,J.

Petitioner is stated to be the Branch Manager of Chemmaruthy Service Co-operative Bank Ltd., Panayara, Varkala. It is submitted that he is a social worker fighting against corruption. It is stated that there is a faction in the party to which he belongs and the opposite group is causing threat to his life.

2. The learned counsel for respondents 1 to 5 stoutly denied the allegations. It is also submitted that the petitioner is not even a member of the party. Whatever it be, this Court has only granted police protection for the life of the petitioner, which he is entitled to. That being the case, without going further into the allegations raised in the writ petition, the interim order is made absolute. However we may add to say that the object sought to be achieved by the petitioner as a social worker, however laudable it may be, the means to achieve the same is also to be legal.

Writ Petition is closed.

P.R.RAMAN,
Judge.

K.HEMA,
Judge.
